Meet Our Founder and CEO

Stephen A. Crystal has spent over 33 years in all aspects of the casino, gaming technology, iGaming, sports betting, Esports & sports entertainment industries.

About Stephen A. Crystal

From transforming tribal and riverboat gaming to owning iconic Las Vegas casinos and establishing the premier global advisory firm in the gambling industry, Stephen A. Crystal has pioneered gaming innovation over the past three decades. As the founder of SCCG Management, he has led $3 billion in project finance, M&A, and gaming technology innovation. Stephen developed US operations for the UK's largest privately held bookmaker, securing multi-million dollar deals with teams including the Bengals and Golden Knights, and established sports betting operations for tribal casinos. As an expert in emerging markets, Stephen has traveled to over 100 countries to support the operations of over 130 client-partners.

Use Cases

Fulfillment Planning for Campaigns and Promotions

We support fulfillment coordination for campaigns, multi-location distribution, timed delivery, and shipping schedules that require consistency.

Trade Shows, Activations, and On-Site Execution

We coordinate event logistics, vendor scheduling, and onsite execution support for teams that need the details handled—and delivery done right.

Time-Sensitive Freight & Expedited Shipping

When delivery deadlines are non-negotiable, SCCG Logistics coordinates time-critical transportation to ensure assets arrive exactly when needed. We manage carrier selection, routing, and delivery windows to prevent delays that disrupt launches, events, or operations.

Last-Mile Delivery with Strict Delivery Windows

For venues, properties, and event sites that operate on fixed delivery schedules, SCCG Logistics coordinates, last-mile transportation with precise timing and vendor accountability.

High-Value Equipment Transportation

Gaming equipment, technology hardware, and branded assets require secure handling and controlled transport. SCCG Logistics oversees carrier coordination, tracking and delivery confirmation for sensitive or high-value shipments.
